PROPERTY DETAILS

Treasure Cove, a gated oceanfront community, is located on the southeastern area of New Providence, Bahamas. This community has become one of the most popular gated residential areas of Nassau due to its beach frontage, secure family atmosphere, large park & playground, and close proximity to schools and shops. Comprised only of single-family residential homes, Treasure Cove offers a diverse mix of residents from the young family with children to the semi-retired. In addition, the community has a thriving Home Owner's Association that is involved in all areas of life including hosting social events, involvement in local charities and daily maintenance of the beautifully manicured grounds. The Bahamas community of Treasure Cove consists of 282 home sites of which the majority have been built on. There are only a hand few of real estate lots still available to build your family home on. Treasure Cove real estate is always in demand! Many expatriates (expats for short) live in this thriving community whilst sending their children to the best private school in Nassau, Bahamas; St. Andrew's School, which is in close walking distance. Call Andrew to arrange a viewing on 427-3588!
