PROPERTY DETAILS

Located on the point to the south of the Chub Cay Club, lot 29 is one of the only undeveloped lots in the Club Villa area of Chub Cay. It sits elevated above the beach facing south towards the beach and club. The owner of the lot will have full access to the club and all the amenities once they join the club. Chub Cay has taken on a major restoration and is set to be one of the finest private resorts in The Bahamas with its private airport, customs, and immigration. The Chub Cay Club is a private members club for those who enjoy fishing, privacy, luxury, and the ultimate island lifestyle. Owners must join the club to have access to the amenities. The Berry Islands are known for their invigorating dive sites and distinctive sport and bill fishing. Composed of a cluster of 30 islands and cays, a majority of these islands are uninhabited. The islands are also home to many cavern, reef, wall, and wreck dive sites and a 600-foot-wide blue hole.
