PROPERTY DETAILS

Bahama Sound 14 lies some three miles southwest of George Town and is a quaint, steadily developing area. A mixture of modest homes and apartment buildings now populate a small percentage of the area. On the Queens Highway, there is a beach reserve that has a convenient area for launching small boats or other watercraft. Much of the area has access to electricity, telephone, internet, and cable TV. Water will have to be obtained from a private well. This listing offers you the opportunity to own a home in this quaint community, making it ideal for both living and as a future investment.
