PROPERTY DETAILS

This 2-bedroom, 2.5-bathroom condominium at Port of Call Villas is an outstanding investment opportunity in an oceanfront community. Located in the Bahama Terrace subdivision and priced to sell as a fixer-upper, this is your chance to acquire a property with a proven rental history and location without the premium price tag. The price allows for a full renovation, giving a new owner the opportunity to build immediate equity while creating a custom space. Residents and tenants can enjoy all the community has to offer, including a pool, beautifully landscaped grounds, and stunning ocean views. The location is ideal, just a five-minute drive from downtown Freeport and close to the airport. This property also includes reliable infrastructure with an automatic backup generator. Since Port of Call allows both short-term and long-term rentals, this condo is a fantastic and flexible option for any investor. Don't miss out on this property with endless potential.
