PROPERTY DETAILS

Welcome to Lyndhurst House, a charming two-story colonial Bahamian-style building situated in the heart of downtown Nassau's bustling commercial district. Built in the 1800s, this historic property blends timeless elegance with a prime location, making it an ideal space for your business. Currently used as a residential property, most furnishings will be removed, allowing you the freedom to customize the interior to suit your business needs. With approximately 3,900 sq. ft. of flexible space, Lyndhurst House showcases a unique mix of colonial architecture and tropical flair. The spacious rooms, featuring warm wooden and ceramic floors, provide a perfect setting for offices. The large covered balcony can be transformed into a stylish outdoor lounge, client meeting area. The property also includes a 350 sq. ft. building, ideal for extra office space, a private studio, or a small retail shop.
