PROPERTY DETAILS

Built in 1834 and beautifully restored, The Convent is a historic coral stone residence in the heart of Dunmore Town, just one block from the bay and steps from top restaurants, with Pink Sand Beach only minutes away. The home offers four en suite bedrooms, including a private garden level suite. The upper level features the primary suite with cathedral style pecky cypress ceilings and access to a wraparound porch, along with two guest suites and a study alcove. The main floor includes open living and dining areas and a kitchen with pecky cypress cabinetry, stainless steel appliances, and original Cuban tiles. Outdoors, lush gardens surround one of Harbour Island's largest private pools, complemented by a spacious covered dining terrace and multiple lounging areas. A rare blend of history, character, and modern comfort, The Convent offers timeless island living in an exceptional location.
