PROPERTY DETAILS

This expansive 120-acre parcel in Long Island, Bahamas offers an incredible opportunity for large-scale farming, residential development, or eco-based investment. Rich, naturally fertilized soil and access to fresh spring water make it ideal for agriculture—from crop cultivation to livestock and sustainable food production. The property's size and layout also make it well-suited for subdivision, whether for a private estate community, agricultural lots, or a thoughtfully planned rural development. With plenty of open space, gentle terrain, and natural resources, it's a blank canvas ready for vision and purpose. Peaceful, secluded, and surrounded by the island's natural beauty, this property is perfect for those looking to create something meaningful—whether for food, families, or future value.
