PROPERTY DETAILS

This delightful, bright, and breezy 1-bed, 1-bath cottage is situated on a paved road, within very close proximity to Surfer's Beach and the famous Surfer's Manor hotel. This area is a magnet for serious surfers, and surfers of all levels, but also for people looking for an authentic, off-the-beaten-track experience in a tropical paradise. The cottage is being offered semi-furnished. It is connected to power and city water and is also equipped with a backup rainwater tank, an outdoor shower, and a standalone utility shed. A beautifully crafted wooden fence surrounds the property, offering ample privacy. The picturesque settlement of Gregory Town, known for the sweetest pineapples in the world, is just a 5 to 10-minute drive away. There are frequent ferries available from Gene's Bay and Three Island Dock to Spanish Wells and

Harbour Island, as well as readily available international flights to and from North Eleuthera Airport. There is a beautiful wrap-around veranda overlooking a lushly landscaped garden with mature trees and plants, furnished with comfy, real-wood Adirondack chair
