PROPERTY DETAILS

Situated in a prime, high-traffic corridor, this two-story commercial building offers exceptional visibility and accessibility—perfect for maximizing brand exposure. Ideal for medical, professional, or business services, the property presents an outstanding opportunity to establish or expand operations in one of Nassau's most active commercial zones. With street frontage and visibility from both directions, it ensures constant exposure to passing traffic. The building and land are offered as freehold, providing long-term investment security. Conveniently located near schools, shopping, and public transportation, this property combines accessibility with prominence—making it a rare find for discerning investors or professionals seeking a strategic, high-visibility business location.
