PROPERTY DETAILS

Mizpah's House is a stunning waterfront retreat designed for comfort, space, and breathtaking views at every level. The first floor welcomes you with an open-concept kitchen, dining, and living area that flows together—perfect for gathering and entertaining. This level also features two well-appointed bedrooms and two full bathrooms, offering both privacy and convenience. Step outside onto the expansive front porch, where you can relax and take in uninterrupted views of the water. On the second level, you'll find a bright and airy open living space, complemented by a spacious bedroom, full bath, and walk-in closet. This floor extends outdoors to a generous wraparound porch, creating the perfect setting for morning coffee, sunset views, or simply enjoying the peaceful waterfront atmosphere from every angle. The third level features a large loft-style area with a cozy seating space that overlooks the water, creating a serene and elevated retreat within the home. This level also includes two beds and a full bathroom, making it ideal for guests or extended family.
