Rum Cay is known as an island of peaceful seclusion and one of the best kept secrets of The Bahamas chain of islands. Life on Rum Cay, Bahamas is about as close as you get to untouched, authentic island living-where time slows down and the rhythm of the ocean sets the pace of the day. Nestled in the southeastern Bahamas, Rum Cay is a quiet unspoiled gem known for its powdery white beaches, crystal clear turquoise waters and a sense of privacy increasingly rare in the modern world. This lot, which is rectangular in shape and located with 108 feet of white sand beach front is a fishermen, divers and snorkelers dream. It also has the only underwater museum in The Bahamas.
